David Bass & Kathy Lindsay

Choreography by:
Rachel Zimmerman

"The picture of pomposity and a man of boundless vanity, devoid of generosity, and as ugly as a manatee..." David Bass's clever libretto, relating the biblical story of a wealthy, powerful man willing to plot the genocide of the Jews because one of them would not bow to him, is strangely resonant. Two 50-minute acts of lyrical music, presented by an intergenerational cast, with side titles.
