THIS WEEK:

-- In the Faraway Near of the Hidden Ear: we'll run through this just to make sure there are no problems.

-- SECTIONALS:

- Evolutionary Eye: We have a little more sectional work to do on this before we record. Hopefully, we can finish that up this week.

-- The Nose Knows: we'll start learning this, and David will talk about the chemistry of the smells in the two-part section.

-- The Power of How We Feel: This is a new song. It's 4-part a cappella, so we will definitely work on this in sectionals in coming weeks, but I want to introduce it now.

-- Searching for Delicious: We'll end with this fourth song in the Cambridge Public School Medley

NEW ON THE WEBSITE:

Nothing of note, other than new rehearsal and sectional recordings (thanks, section leaders!), emails, etc.

See you all on Thursday--David and Sue
