Hey everybody, we've submitted our "World Premiere Science Song of the Week" content to the Science Festival and created a Vimeo page where we'll post these here:
<https://vimeopro.com/ncfo/2021-csf-songs>
(starting with "Virus!")

We've also adapted our home page, familyopera.org, to reflect this new content.

Spread the word! We'll also be linking to past Science Chorus performances, soon.

PS We think we will end up posting slightly more frequently than weekly, especially considering that we are scheduled to record 6 songs!
