We'll be uploading the "Perfect Pitch" video in the next day or so, and we'll send out an email to let you know when we do!

THIS WEEK:

NO SECTIONALS AGAIN THIS WEEK!

-- We'll warm up with "The Power of How We Feel" (sheet music / demo), and see if there are any trouble spots.

-- We'll then work a bit on "The Dizzy Song" (sheet music / demo) which we introduced last week.

-- Next, we'll review "The Nose Knows" (sheet music / demo) one last time before we record this. (We will be posting the MP3s with the corrected note at the end of measure 33 in the next day or two.)

-- We'll be taking our first look at another David Haines song, "Optical Illusions" (sheet music / demo). The verses in this song are unison but are very challenging rhythmically so we'll be focusing on those this week. The choruses are simpler rhythmically but are in four parts: this week we'll just read through them as best we can, and we'll work on them in sectionals, probably next week.

-- We'll close with a review of the entire Cambridge Public School Medley (sheet music)

NEW ON THE WEBSITE:

Evolutionary Eye with clicks and with measure 128 fixed for the tenors.

New rehearsal recordings, emails, etc.

See you all on Thursday--David and Sue
