Emilija has the following request for video:

I am working on the Evolutionary Eye video, and am looking ahead, hoping you all know it's not too late to submit "The Nose Knows" videos! (Maybe you got sidetracked with vacation week? Maybe you just ran out of time?)

It's such a fun song with potential for dancing and/or props (fermentation!) and right now it's only Liz and I who have submitted videos... I sent in 2, one in a different costume lol! It's also a pretty short and catchy song!

If you have time between now and Wednesday night, it would be great to get some additional video for our last full-fledged virtual chorus video (sheet music / demo).

Thanks for considering! --Sue
