Music and Libretto by Cambridge composer David Bass

Musical Direction by David Bass

Stage Direction by Kathy Lindsay and David Sandberg

Choreography by Corinne Mason

In this operatic portrayal of the biblical story of Esther, Queen Esther risks her life to save her cousin Mordechai and the Jewish people from Haman, the vengeful Grand Vizier of Persia.

Springtime for Haman is a sensitive and entertaining opera in two 50-minute acts and features lyrical music in a variety of popular and classical styles.

Come see this original show performed by an inter-generational cast!

Presented in English with side titles.
