CHAMBER CONCERT
A little Mozart, some Strauss..
Saturday - June 17 - 3 PM
First Church in Cambridge, Congregational
11 Garden Street, Lindsay Chapel
Starring some familiar faces from this production
Charlotte Ames (Chorus) has been a prolific performer at home, and her parents are glad that she is now sharing her talents with the rest of the world. Charlotte enjoys art, humorous literature, bike rides, soccer, and collecting cute animals and monsters.

Julian Baptista (Jabba the Hutt, Stormtrooper 1) is a homeschooler who lives in Salem. He loves eagles, being a vegetarian, and acting and singing. He has played Snoopy in You're A Good Man, Charlie Brown, an orphan in Oliver, and a kid in Bye Bye Birdie. He also had the opening solo in the 1999 Yuletide Festival in Salem. He's a member of The Moving Company Theatre Group in Wakefield.

David Bass is the founder and musical director of the North Cambridge Family Opera Company. He was a prolific composer of pretentious music as a teenager, but became discouraged in college and pursued a career in chemical engineering instead. After a 20 year hiatus from musical composition, Bass wrote the distinctly unpretentious "Space Opera" for the enjoyment of his three young children, their friends, and their families. He is now working on a second opera and plans to continue writing music for as long as he can avoid taking himself too seriously.

Lonnie Bass (Luke Skywalker) is 8 and a 2nd-grader at the Tobin School in Cambridge. Lonnie studies Suzuki violin and sings in a chorus at the Longy School of Music. Lonnie also likes playing soccer, Barbies, computer games, writing and illustrating her own stories, and playing with her little sister and big brother. She was Jabba the Hutt in last year's Space Opera production.

Robert Bass (Han Solo) is 10-1/2 and a 5th-grader at the Tobin School in Cambridge. Robert enjoys music: he studies clarinet and sings in a chorus at the Longy School of Music. Robert also likes playing on his computer, video games, jumping on the trampoline, and building Legos. He was Luke Skywalker in last year's Space Opera production.

Miriam Beit-Aharon (Rebel 2, Prison Guard) is embarrassed to admit that she is Nathan Beit-Aharon’s sister, and is denying it by being a rebel in the first act. She would like to keep far away from him, but, as she herself will tell you: her “capture is all but assured”.
Nathan Beit-Aharon (Stormtrooper 3) is a sophomore at The New Jewish High School of Greater Boston, where his Stormtrooper’s alter-ego majors in inhumanities. He hopes to “devastate [his] enemies and swat them down like flies,” and retire to a ski resort on Hoth.

Noah Beit-Aharon (Stormtrooper 2, Head Stormtrooper) home-schools. Being first in his class brought him to the attention of the Empire, who hired him as a part-time officer, part-time soldier. For only 20 credits a week, he will “kill for you, and maim for you, poke people in the eyes”.

Mary Rose Branch (Jabba the Hutt, Stormtrooper 2) is a 2nd-grader at the Tobin School in Cambridge. She has performed in plays at school, but this is her first musical performance. Besides singing, her interests include piano, swimming, tennis and soccer. In her spare time, Mary Rose loves to play with her dog Daisy, who can’t come to the show because dogs are not allowed. She is very happy to be in the Space Opera!!

Sue Brent (Stormtrooper) - When she is not a stormtrooper fighting Aliens, she is a mother of 5 battling household destruction. Occasionally she gets to escape and go dancing!

Phil Budne (Obi-Wan Kenobi) of Arlington, a semi-retired software guru, has been singing in choruses of all types (including last year's Space Opera) for half his life. This is his first appearance in a solo role.

Mary Callahan (Chorus) is a Cambridge resident. She is raising two boys, Adam and Derek Quinn. She works part-time. Her interests include reading, the computer and making primitive crafts. She would like to thank her mother Peg for always being there.

Nicholas Commons-Miller (Stormtrooper 1) is a 5th-Grader at the Tobin School in Cambridge. He enjoys playing Star Craft and Sim City. He also likes drama, soccer and orienteering. He programs games and other programs for computers and, in the future, hopes to start a small software company.

Heather Dudley (R2-D2) is an 8-year-old homeschooler who loves to act and sing. Other shows she has appeared in include Annie, Annie Get Your Gun, The Wizard of Oz, Once On This Island, and The Velveteen Rabbit. Her favorite role was Gretl in The Sound of Music. She also likes animals, horseback riding, playing piano, swimming and learning.
Jennifer Dudley (Luke Skywalker) is a 9-year-old homeschooler who lives in Billerica with her parents, sisters, 3 cats and too many fish to count. She enjoys many activities such as painting and drawing, horseback riding and skiing. Other shows she has performed in include Annie Get Your Gun, The Wizard of Oz, Once On This Island, and, most recently, A Midsummer Nights Dream.

Rachel Dudley is a 13-year-old homeschooler from Billerica. Her hobbies include reading, acting, making jewelry, and especially singing. She has been in many plays including Little Women, The Wizard of Oz, and The Good Times Are Killing Me. Rachel has enjoyed being Princess Leia in her first operatic performance.

Roger Frymire (Chewbacca) is a retired MIT dropout. According to the Cambridge annual City Census, he has dabbled in occupations such as Phrenologist, Authority, and most recently Gosherd. He would like to thank the Hall/Bass family for putting up with his truly Monstrous singing voice. Hi, Betty!

Sue Hall (Chorus) is the mom of Lonnie and Robert Bass (as well as 2-1/2-year-old future star Reina Bass). Before her transition to stay-at-home-mom, she taught math and operations to undergrad and MBA students at Babson College. She enjoys playing the piano and playing on the computer and was also in the chorus in last year’s Space Opera production.

Kieran Kinnare (Chorus) lives in Ipswich and is in first grade. He likes soccer, baseball, basketball, and Bulbasaur.

Nina Krane (C-3PO, Rebel 1, Assistant Stormtrooper) is 7 years old and lives in Somerville. She is in second grade at the Brown School and her favorite subject is spelling. She is a member of the chorus at the Longy School of Music. She likes kickball and reading. This is her first opera.

Kathy Lindsay (C-3PO), by day a designer of digital circuitry, seems to have taken her profession a bit too far. She has found from many hours of study though, that our droids depend more on the needle and less on the soldering iron.

Robyn Lindsay (Chorus) is in the first grade in Waltham. She enjoys swimming, computer games, and reading, and prefers the Dark Side of a chocolate and vanilla ice cream cup.
The North Cambridge Family Opera Company began as an informal group of children and adults who gathered to perform at the North Cambridge (NoCa) open studios weekend in May 1999. We found the experience of singing opera to be a unique way to strengthen families, to build friendships, and to enhance relationships between generations.

Our mission is to provide children and adults the opportunity to experience and enjoy the telling of a story through song, by performing operas which are

- sung throughout (few spoken lines, if any);
- based on stories appealing to children (both boys and girls), as well as adults; and
- musically accessible to children but sophisticated enough to hold the interest of adults.

Casts and crews are comprised of children and adults, with participation by multiple family members encouraged. Both children and adults are cast in solo roles.

To the extent possible, the productions are financed through donations and volunteerism. We seek to minimize fees on performers and admission so that financial considerations will not prevent families from participating in a production or attending a performance.

Rosemary Lindsay (Chorus) will be entering kindergarten in Waltham in the fall. This is her first performance, but she loves to be able to act out her favorite movie.

Ruth McCormack (Rebel 1) is 7 years old and a 2nd-grader at the Tobin School in Cambridge. When not singing, she can be found playing soccer, dancing, reading, playing, and generally having fun.

Kiki Mercer (Chorus) lives in Arlington. She is a pastoral counselor, and takes on the majority of responsibility for homeschooling her son, Robert.

Robert Mercer (Chorus) is a 9-year-old homeschooler who loves to learn at home so that he can devote himself to his favorite subjects: science, literature, history, math and computer science.

Jeffrey Moore, (Darth Vader) by day a mild-mannered software engineer, returns for a second season as the chronically misunderstood Darth Vader. A 1985 graduate of MIT, he lives in Waltham with Kathy, Robyn and Rosemary Lindsay. He enjoys puzzles, most kinds of music, and pondering the mysteries of the Force.

Cheryl Moreau (Chorus) has been involved in tech theatre and non-profit fundraising since high school and college, and hopes to bring her experience and expertise to North Cambridge Family Opera.

Peter Moriarty (Stormtrooper 4, Sandtrooper) is 10-3/4 and goes to Bridge Elementary School in Lexington. He likes to sing and plays basketball, soccer and baseball. He likes to build Legos and has a keen interest in science. This is Peter’s second appearance in the Space Opera.

Tommy Moriarty (Rebel, Assistant Stormtrooper) is an 8-year-old 2nd-grader at Bridge Elementary School in Lexington. He is an avid sportsman and loves to sing. This is Tommy’s debut in an opera.

Schuyler Oppenheimer, (Chorus) age 9, is homeschooled and waiting for the next Harry Potter book to come out. He loves to play ice hockey. “This is my first time being in an opera. I’ve seen every Star Wars movie at least five times! Being a stormtrooper is awesome!”

Shanti Oppenheimer, (Chorus) age 7, lives in Cambridge with his mom and dad and three brothers and sister. He is a homeschooler who would like to be a scientist one day. “This is my first time singing in an opera. It’s pretty fun.”
Annie Pell Osborn (C-3PO, Sandtrooper, Head Stormtrooper) is in 2nd grade at the Advent School in Boston. She has studied the violin for four years and plays in the Preparatory Orchestra at the Longy School of Music. She just received her Orange Belt in Karate. Space Opera is her stage debut.

Louise Ambler Osborn (Princess Leia) is known by cogniscenti at her son’s nursery school as “that Lady who sang in Green Eggs and Ham”, Robert Kapilow’s setting of the Dr. Seuss classic. Last spring she received her Associate’s Diploma in voice at the Longy School of Music in Cambridge. She is a regular soloist at St. John’s Church, Charlestown and occasionally at the Church of the New Jerusalem in Cambridge.

Patrick O’Sullivan (Han Solo) is an 11-year-old homeschooler who keeps busy with the Boy Scouts, editing Dr. Information, a home-schooling newspaper, and as a member of the Handel and Haydn Youth Chorus and Somerville’s Openair Circus where he is an advanced stilt-ter. This is Patrick’s first show.

Linda Papatopoli (Chorus) is the proud mother of Han Solo (Patrick O’Sullivan). When she is not mothering, Linda teaches piano at Boston College.

Sarah Perlmutter (R2-D2), 11 years old, is a 5th grade student at the Tobin School in Cambridge. She reprises her role as R2D2 from last year's production of the Space Opera. Playing soccer and the violin, and reading (especially Harry Potter and the Animorphs series) are favorite activities. She lives with her mom, her dad, and Mariah, the wonder dog.

Adam Quinn (R2-D2) is a 3rd grade student at the Tobin School in Cambridge. He is 9 years old. Besides being a Star Wars fan, he enjoys video games, music, reading, and Pokemon. He would like to thank David Bass for this “galactic” opportunity.

Paul Raila (Obi-Wan Kenobi) has performed with a variety of musical groups including: The MIT Logarithms (men's close harmony), and the Cambridge Community Chorus (mixed-voice chorus). His musical theatre roles have included Matt in the Fantastiks, the Barber in Man of LaMancha and chorus in Pirates of Penzance, Trial By Jury, and Camelot.
Chris Reif (Chorus) has performed with such notable groups as The Plumber’s Convention and the Ramblin’ Clams. She would like to sing bass when she grows up.

Liz Ryan (C-3PO) is 12 years old and has been singing in operas and choral performances since she was 9. Liz has performed with the Boston Children’s Opera in Sleeping Beauty and with the Treble Chorus of New England in Iolanthe, The Seven Goats and The Golden Vanity. Liz enjoys swimming, reading, writing and listening to music.

Dale Senechal (General Dodonna, Technical Director, Scenic & Lighting Director) was professionally involved with theater for 4 years. During that period, he was the Technical Director for several organizations, including The Opera Company of Boston for two seasons, the Kentucky Shakespeare Festival, and the Wellesley College Theatre Department. He has designed sets and lighting for the Turtle Lane Playhouse and numerous non-professional organizations. This production marks the 28th year since his first appearance on stage as Oliver.

Frank Walker (Darth Vader) currently resides in Cambridge. Mr. Walker attended the New England and Boston Conservatories of Music. He has appeared with the Boston Lyric Opera, Longwood Opera, and the Opera Company of Boston.

Adam Weinreb (Stormtrooper 3) is a 2nd grade student at Cambridge Friends School. Space Opera is Adam’s first public performance.

Dan Weinreb (General Dodonna) works as a software engineer and is interested in music. He hopes to pursue these interests with North Cambridge Family Opera.

Cindy Woolworth (Chorus) is a dignified Lexington matron whose previous singing credits include the New Jersey All-State Chorus, the Chorallaries of M.I.T., and birthing her first child Charlotte Ames, who is also performing in the Space Opera. Second child Harry did not arrive in song, but sings nonetheless. Outside of her real life, Cindy tries to find time to enjoy her career as a software tester. Hi Mike!

At the core of this five-week unit, students focus on animation as a powerful communications tool. They identify social issues and offer solutions as they design and animate their own Public Service Announcement. Their PSA is then shown to the school community, on cable or broadcast TV. Young Animators is a great way for students to learn while doing, and to connect schools with communities.
